

Nearshore Manufacturing

The main benefits of nearshore manufacturing in Mexico

Nearshore Manufacturing is a cost effective way to manufacture in neighboring countries for closer distribution, skilled labor, trade benefits, and financial stability.

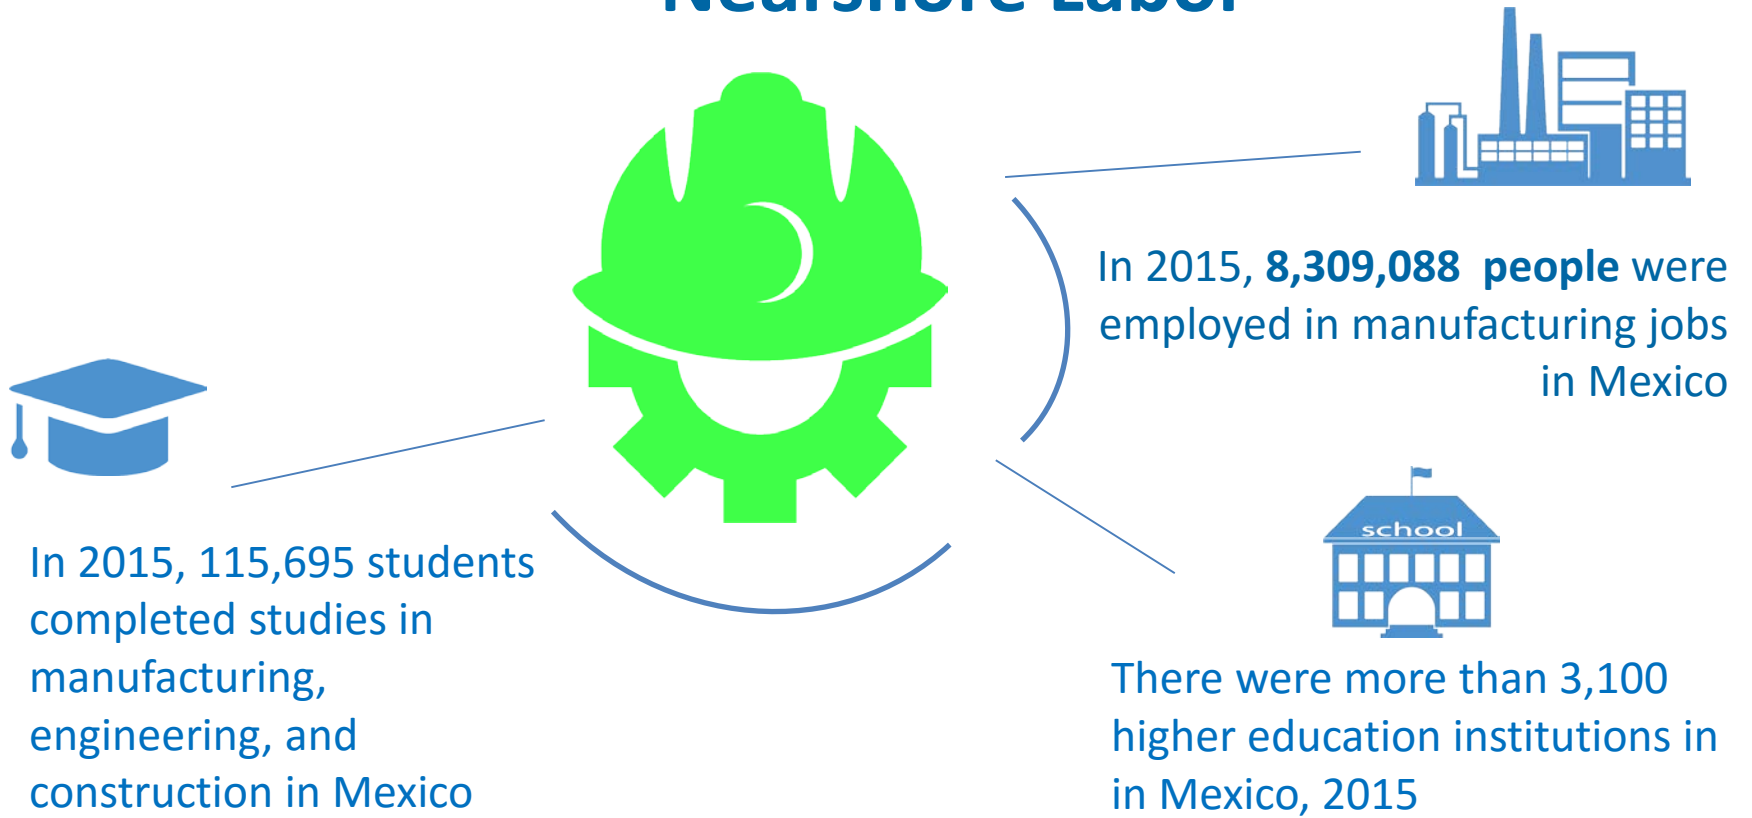

Infrastructure

The geographic proximity of nearshore manufacturing cuts transportation and travel time for more frequent site visits when products are being moved and assembled.

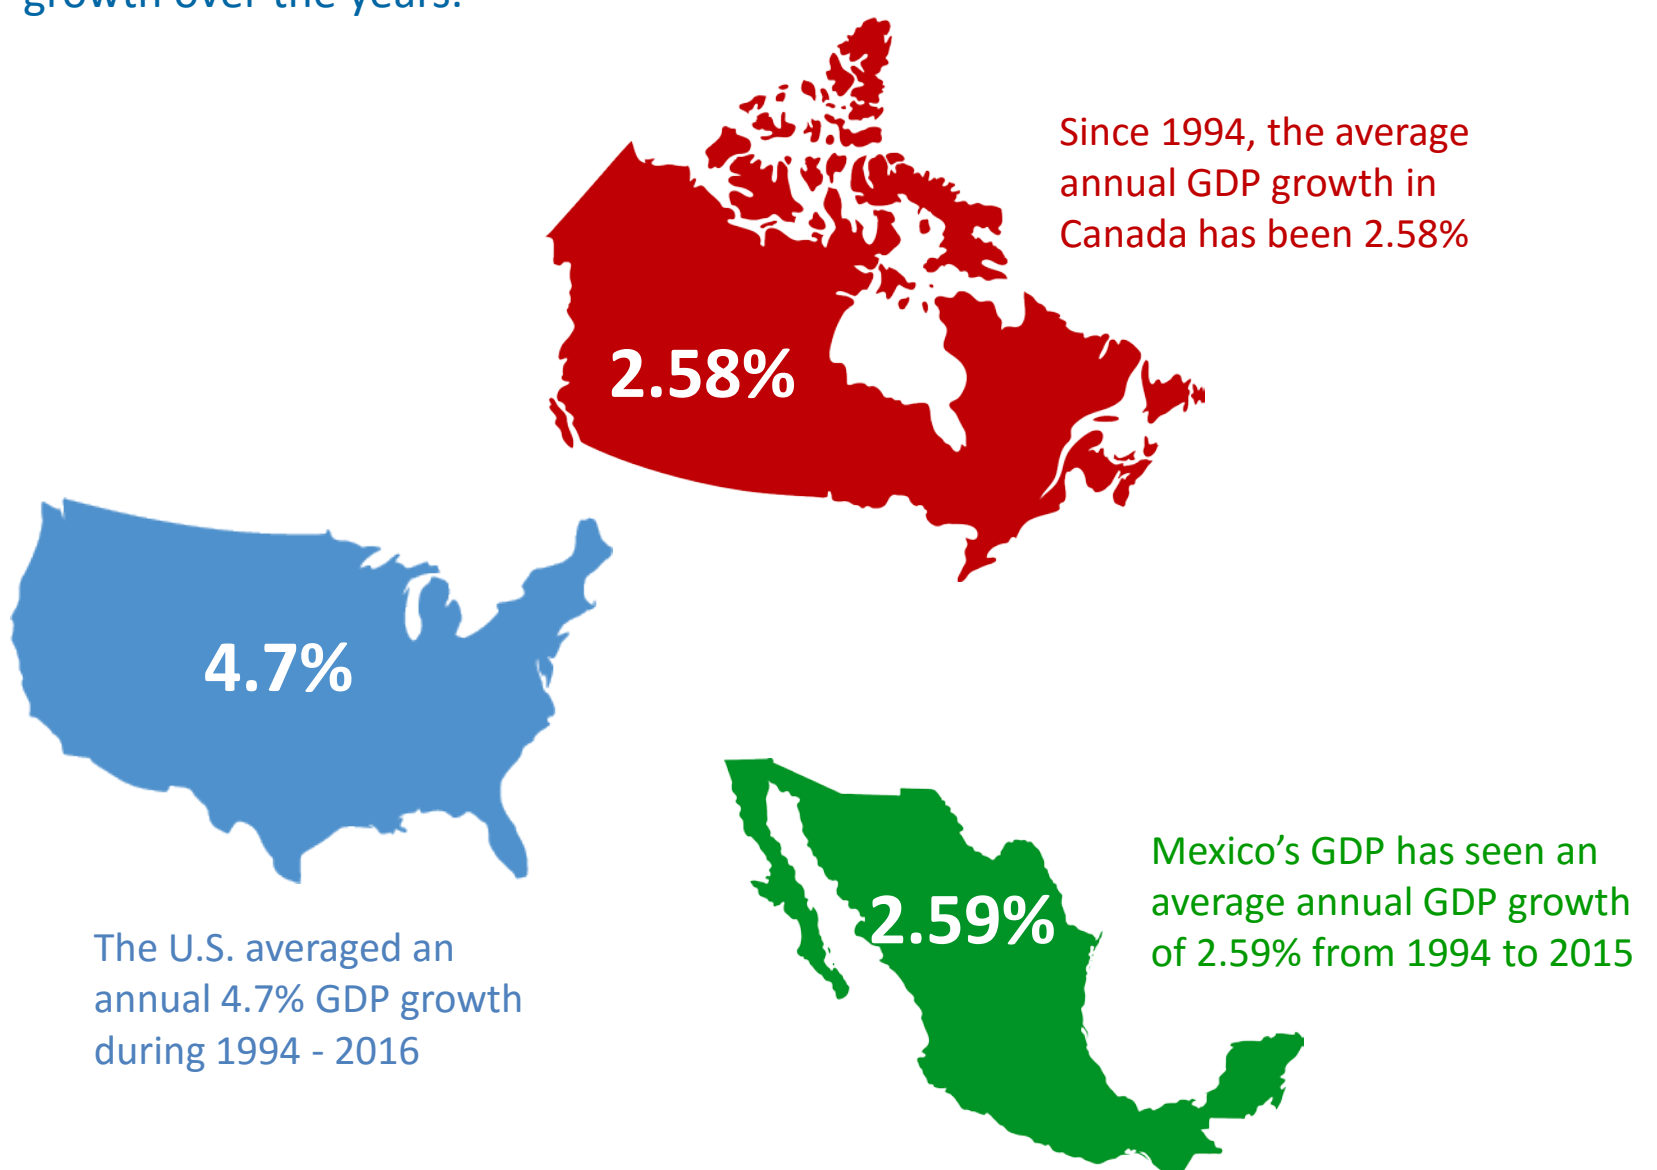

Nearshore Labor

Data from: mim.promexico.gob.mx

GDP (1994 – 2016)

Since the signing of NAFTA, North American countries have seen a great deal of GDP growth over the years.

Data from: <http://data.worldbank.org/indicator/NY.GDP.MKTP.CD>